

Syllabus for written examination for the post of Foreman

Syllabus for Printing in Letter Press (written test)

Paper - I 100 Marks time 3 hours

1. Evolution of Letter Press Printing with basic principle and use of different materials method of Letter Press Printing. Combination of metals used for moulding printing types and blanks
2. Composing of printing matters and use of types for letter press printing
3. Ways of printing photographs and making of blocks thereof with imposing of pages.
4. Ways and methods in different steps of letter press printing
5. Use of Letterpress printing machines
6. Basic ways of Binding and use of different materials and machineries
- 7.

Syllabus for Printing in Offset (written test)

Paper - II 100 Marks time 3 hours

1. Evolution of Offset Printing and basic principle of Lithography. Use of different materials for lithographic process of printing.
2. Designing and Planning of a work with cost efficiency both in materials and manpower.
3. Introduction of computers and its use in the field of printing
4. Process camera and its different functions in offset printing with use of light and darkroom and colour separation
5. Different process of Plate making and chemicals used for making a plate
6. Offset machine and its different use and ink technology

Syllabus for other latest methods of Printing (written test)

Paper - III 100 Marks time 3 hours

1. The latest developments being introduced in offset printing and its functioning etc.
2. The latest machinery being introduced in the field of printing and their use and functions.
3. Digital Printing with planning and measurement a job with modern printing.

Syllabus for Viva voice

40 Marks

1. Oral question on different subjects of printing and its functioning.
2. Basic knowledge of English and GK.

(Tajuk Charu)
Director (Printing)
Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh
Naharlagun